Introduction

There's more than the internet texts in here. I hope you benefit from it.

The rest of the introduction contains some background on the poems and the acknowledgements.

„Day unto day uttereth speech“ and „The Way it is“ are translations from the German versions, already published at Lulu and elsewhere in the collection „Du kannst nicht irren auf dem Pfad“ (German: you cannot err on that path).

If I remember correctly, „Sunset“ was written in 1997 on the train back home from my first breathwork seminar with Markus in Offenburg. Traveling north through the Rhine Rift Valley (German: Oberrheintalgraben) I watched an especially fiery sunset and the words just came.

The Making Sense From Random Words project from 1998 is a collection of poems with a construction principle of my own design:

1. A perl program selects from a list of the words used most often in English according to their (extrapolated) frequency (e.g. "the" is used more often than "man").
2. The words are presented in five lines of seven words.
3. If this selection makes sense to me, I carve it out and enhance clarity without losing the initial feel.

This method works much like the frottage technique in painting - you create random blobs and "see" forms into it which you bring out. Poems after 1998-02-25 appeared with the random original on the internet. The poems „Walking the Same Road as Cain“ and „Back to One (in Time)“ I deem of lesser quality but might still be found at this URL:
<http://hilgemeier.gmxhome.de/poems/msfrw000.htm>

Song texts are also included. „You are the sun shining in my life“ had the melody first. I wonder if Stefan, the composer, still has the sweet melody written down somewhere? Of the „Change Rap“ I know only the meter (8/8). „What did you dream?“ was inspired by Betoko - Raining again (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WO5X9ZUzqXM>). „Come to me o friendly light“ may be a variation of a Christian Science hymn.

„The Way it is“ was written on a morning walk in the nearby parc.

If Karin hadn't suggested this ... but she has. Thank you, Karin! And so I put my poetry into this volume.

My heartfelt thanks to all who contributed to the creation of this volume (and this includes you, dear reader!)

DAY UNTO DAY UTTERETH SPEECH

(Psalms 19:2,14) 2010-12-20

Seekest thou meaning, ye shall find it.
But language separates without fail,
in good and bad, in you and me.

Thus, meekly,
let my work Thy language be.

And ev'ry snowflake gathers at its place.

BEING LOVE

Wed, 1998-02-11

We are because that which was which is and which is to come

We are here
because everything else
is not here
but there.

And so,
we know not.

I, Mother, may of You take this:
Each of these is water for the thirsty,
across form, beyond form,
and yet from it.

Did anyone a greater favor
to You and Your world than just be?

And who has ever had more than this?

Rainbow Heart 001i (2012)

WALKING THE EDGE

Wed, 1998-02-25

Of before and going of ways,
Of not write new with your ego,
A sentence between from and to you'll be.

Line was this a like word who

Of in a often this enough.

Rainbow Mandala 018 (2012)

THE REAPER STRUCK

Tue, 1998-04-28

In tears and water,
much can look different.
Water Mother is there, caring,
although not always seen

what may be,
and that which may not be on days of parting from loved ones.

You have already chosen your side.

Moon 008 (2013)

ECHO

Fri, 1998-05-08; dedicated to calendar makers

Land at the same shore,
enter the same house,
and find in it

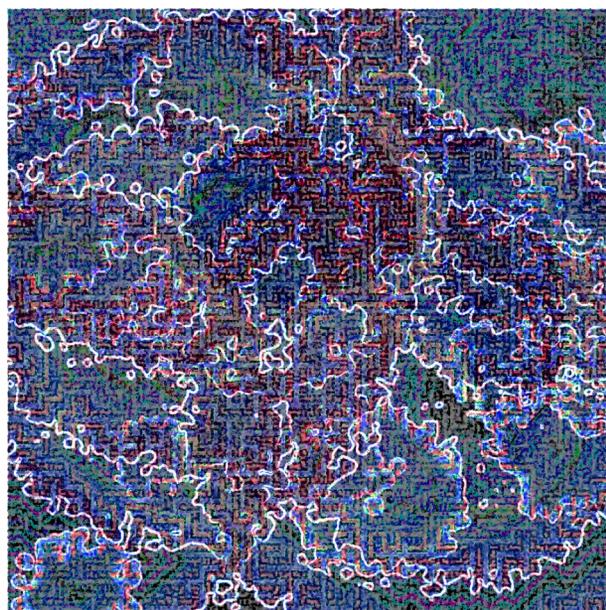

what you always had:
you can use the offroad land about you.

See the Sea,
the one you would be here
the sea that you are.

Water anew the thoughts of him that has come to you.

He supports you,
He understands you
even better than yourself.

Compare the times;
you found him once
you will find him soon.

IN-BETWEEN

Tue, 1998-06-09

Between "off" and "on" lies "in change";
White had part in that,
a part even better to make now.
Too important, only then,
to be just one in.

To "A" again and to "we won".
Two again and we - One.

Many said, when they heard of Black and the Other that they went by.

LIKE WATERS

Thu, 1998-08-06

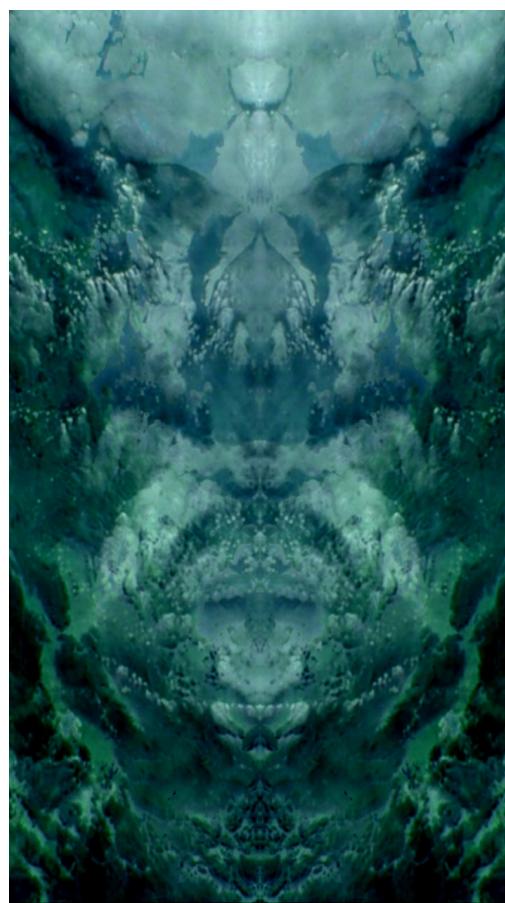

Or know one well
and very it.

Two you water that usually are good together.

From your memory:
one day in paradise.
That means a thought
not asked of place.

You sure don't retaliate
with all that following from hate, trying to get even -

just be even;
flow comes with acceptance.

OVER THE EDGE (GET THIS KEY!)

Wed, 1998-07-22

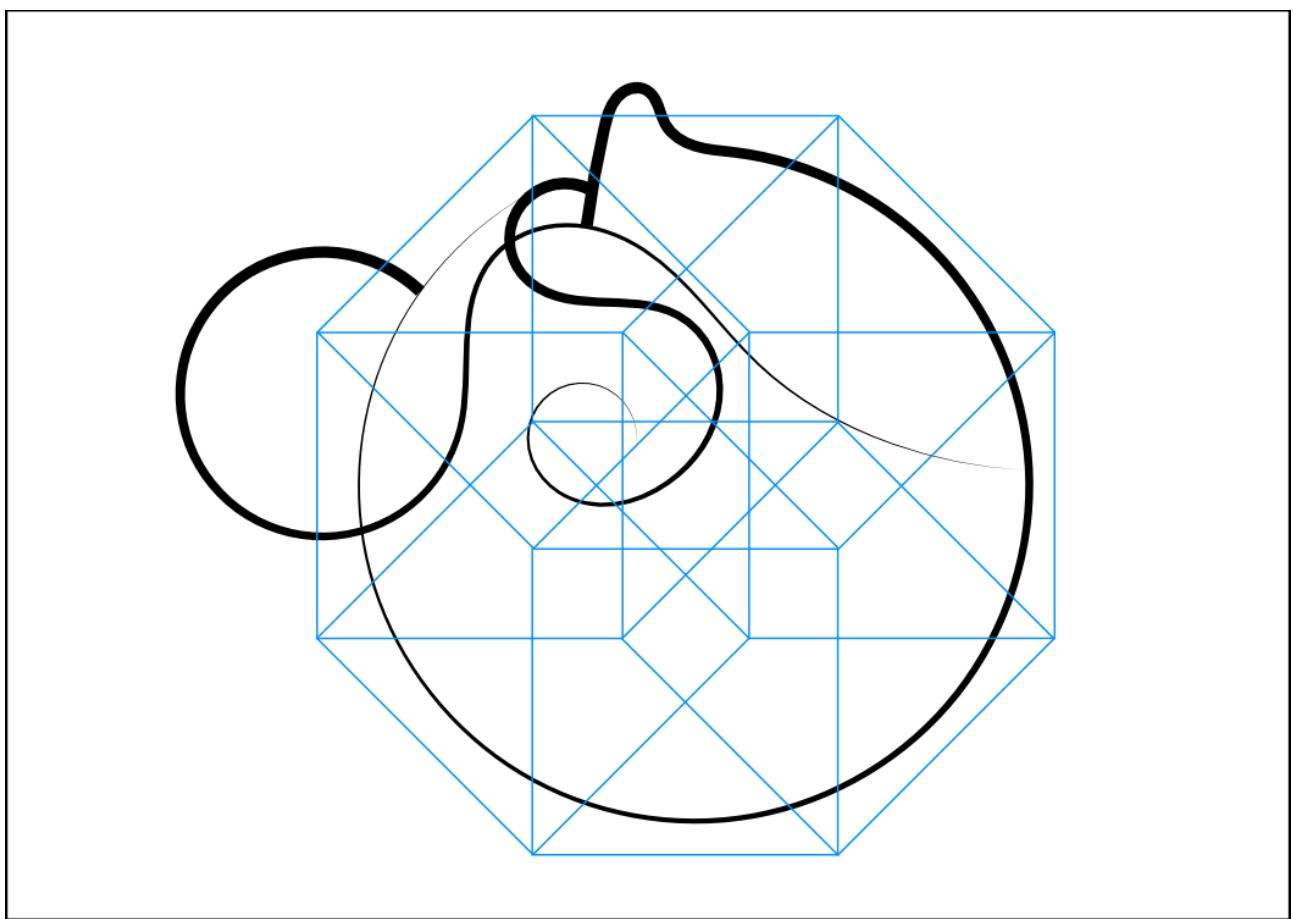

Across and out -
by means of words,

I slide on the other side,
be more than usually alight.

Those staying back get words to read;
and this I hope,
nay, I am sure,
they will behold
that this is not a bunch of words.

Because impatience
ends some day.

Symbol 004 (2011)

YOU ARE THE SUN SHINING IN MY LIFE

2002

You are the sun shining in my life
You are my love when I'm full of strife

"It's easy" you say and smile at me

Every morning I see your face and I know
Love is simple and our truth will always show
Tell the stars that I'm happy to be with you
I'm your planet - your light makes my soul glow

You are my heart when I'm in my head
You are my strength when I feel half dead

In struggle and pain, I know that you are there

All you do is to touch my head and I see
With you near me, I can only be free

Double Plasma 007 (2012)

CHANGE RAP (8/8)

December 1998

All my life it was a lie,
nice illusions to get by.
Had once chosen not to see and avoid asperity.
Isolated, mute and numb,
safe a time, but pretty dumb.
Hurt myself, did never show
what's inside; but now I go!
Look at things that must be done,
meet the rough. Desire: One!

Technoid Dawn (2006)

WHAT DID YOU DREAM?

first 2015-02-05 Thu 17:52

last 2015-03-29 Sun 22:03

( background rhythm: dipdip diddip dip dip, dipdip diddip dip dip )

What did you dream
when you woke up in the morning and the sun was shining in?

What did you see in the scenes of the night that you knew not to describe?

How did you know
when you looked outside the window that the world had changed again?

What do you think where your thoughts are coming from that you know not how to stop?

What do you feel
when you calmly close your eyes watching colors move within?

How can you reach that which gives you so much joy that your tears are running free?

( repeat once again from the beginning )

Fire Bug 005b

COME TO ME O FRIENDLY LIGHT

2017-02-28

Come to me, o friendly light
in the morning, in the night in the evening, in the day
you are more than I can say.

Come to me, o friendly light
sometimes dim and sometimes bright often short and seldom long keep my spirit always strong

Hope (2009)

WHAT IS SO

Mon, 2017-02-27, in the morning

What is so
What you see
What you say
What you love
What you can and do
What you desire
What you are.

Hommage to Barnett Newman (2009)

THE GODDESS'S DREAM

Thu, 2011-05-12 &19

The Goddess, she does have a dream;
and this real dream is you!

Although correct it may not seem,
it's true for me and you.

"HOW ARE YOU?"

2015-04-19

I don't know what makes me be,
I just have a theory:
It's not physics, it is She.

Left Hand of Darkness (2003)

THE WAY IT IS

May 1997

The tit says how it is joyfully insisting again and again fleeting
but without words.

The crow says how it is important calls
of un-knowing.

A herb says how it is all-changing upward power to the light!

Every thing says how it is but who doesn't listen will not understand.

(untitled) 2016-02-20_006

SUNSET

1997

Horizon fire burning in hundred hues of red;
blue Earth, forever turning,
the Sun she sends to bed,

it seems.

But I believe in morning and the light of day
regardless of some clouded time or what the other one may say.

Evening Horizon (2009)

MORNING SONG

Mon, 2006-03-27

I bless the sun
the morning light
I bless the fun
that makes me bright
I bless the song
that's in my heart
and this will be a good day start

Tunnel Light (2003 or probably earlier)
